

Tuition Assurance Exemption

Approved by Academic Board
26 November 2008

Tuition assurance is a requirement of the Higher Education Support Act 2003 (HESA) designed to allow students to access alternative courses of study and financial compensation if their Higher Education Provider ceases being able to provide a course of study. AFTRS has been granted a ministerial exemption from this requirement. For more information on AFTRS' Tuition Assurance Exemption see <http://www.aftrs.edu.au/courses/awardcourses/fees.aspx>

AFTRS may terminate a student's enrolment where AFTRS is unable to continue to offer the course of study in which they are enrolled. While AFTRS will make every effort to offer a replacement course, it is under no obligation to do so.
