Glenn Daniel SmoothFM Scholarship

Who can apply?

To be eligible to apply, you must:

- Demonstrate an interest in news and or journalism
- Be an applicant for a position in the Graduate Diploma in Radio and Podcasting course in 2026
- Be an Australian citizen or Australian permanent resident or a New Zealand citizen

Purpose

The Glenn Daniel SmoothFM Scholarship is in honour of the renowned radio journalist and podcast professional Glenn Daniel.

The purpose of this scholarship is to expand and enrich the school's student community by recognising and supporting an outstanding Graduate Diploma in Radio and Podcasting student, selected based on creative excellence from eligible students interested in news or journalism.

The scholarship is intended to support students by providing a contribution to living expenses or towards relocation costs, study resources and other costs. This scholarship has a maximum value of $10,000.

Application form

Scholarships will only be awarded to those who have been offered a place in the 2026 Graduate Diploma in Radio and Podcasting, so it is important that you apply for the course as well as apply for the scholarship.

Complete the online scholarship application form and provide any documentation requested by the closing date.

All applications will be treated confidentially.

Application Dates

Applications open 18 June 2025 and close 17 November 2025.

Dates are subject to change. Please check AFTRS website for updates.

Conditions

AFTRS may produce public communications in connection with the scholarship. The recipient will be asked for their consent to provide AFTRS with an irrevocable royalty free license to use and reproduce their image and story solely for the purposes of AFTRS internal and external communications. Participation is at the discretion of the recipient.

The successful applicant must have accepted an offer in the 2026 Graduate Diploma in Radio and Podcasting course.

The recipient cannot defer the commencement of the scholarship.

Application task

Please submit the following:

1. Produce and record a story

Record a one-minute news or current affairs story for a radio station or a podcast, on an issue you care about. The item can contain any creative audio elements (submit as an MP3).

All audio can be recorded on any device/s, including smart phones. We are assessing your ideas and how you tell the story, not the quality of the audio.

2. Written task (max. 1000 words) that addresses the following;

- a. Why the issue you covered in Task 1 is important to you;
- b. A critique of your favourite news program, station or source; and
- c. Why you're interested in news and journalism.

What we're looking for

The selection panel will consider the applicant's creative excellence through their application tasks.

AFTRS will determine which, if any, applicant will be awarded the scholarship.

If the selection panel finds that no applicant meets the eligibility criteria, the scholarship will not be awarded.

AFTRS' decision is final and no correspondence about decisions will be entered into.

Other information

In assessing your application, the selection committee may request you provide additional supporting documents to enable them to make a final decision. You will be contacted via email to request specified documents if required.

You will be notified by email whether your application is successful.

Further information

Payments

The maximum value of the scholarship is $10,000, payable over the duration of the course.

Payments are based on the number of enrolled units per semester. One instalment will be paid to the recipient each semester following the applicable census dates.

Study must commence in the academic year for which you are applying.

Payments are conditional on the recipient remaining enrolled, in good academic standing, and continuing to meet the eligibility criteria, and maintain the standards set out in the Student Handbook and AFTRS Code of Conduct.

Certification of documents

Any documents you provide as support material must be certified copies. AFTRS' certification requirements are available at:

www.aftrs.edu.au/students/future-students/how-to-apply/

Translation of documents

If supporting documents are not in English, applicants are required to supply certified copies of the following:

- The document in the original language; and
- An English translation of the document by an accredited translator. Do not send original supporting documents.

Additional information - notes on submission of materials

- Do not exceed the total maximum word count – additional materials will not be reviewed.
- You do not have to complete your application in one sitting. Save your application and log back in at any time prior to the closing date to pick up where you left off.
- File names should be clear and descriptive and only include alphanumeric characters (not symbols).
- Do not include your contact details in any documents.
- You are not permitted to submit any work that has been created in part or whole by a generative AI tool such as ChatGPT and claim it as your own. If you are using any work that is not yours it must be referenced – this is essential to ethical creative practice and academic integrity. Failure to reference is also considered plagiarism.
