Equity Scholarships

2023

AFTRS

AFTRS Equity Scholarships

Purpose

AFTRS Equity Scholarships are awarded twice a year to assist financially disadvantaged students with the costs associated with higher education.

The scholarships are intended to support people from low socio-economic backgrounds or who are otherwise under-represented in higher education to study at AFTRS.

Payments

AFTRS Equity Scholarship funds are provided by The Kenneth Myer Fellowship Trust and the AFTRS Executive Hardship Fund.

- Master of Arts Screen: Each scholarship is valued up to $6,250 and is for one semester only.
- Master of Arts Screen: Business (Full Time): Each scholarship is valued up to $4500 and is for one semester only.
- Bachelor of Arts Screen: Production: Each scholarship is valued up to $2,500 and is for one semester only.
- Graduate Diploma in Radio and Podcasting Full time: Each scholarship is valued up to $2,500 and is for one semester only.

In exceptional circumstances, higher financial support may be given.

Payments will be made following the applicable census date. Payments are conditional on the recipient remaining enrolled, in good academic standing, and continuing to meet the eligibility and disadvantage criteria, and any other conditions.

Assessment of Applications

There are limited funds for scholarships, so AFTRS may not be able to support everyone who applies or who demonstrates they are in need.

AFTRS will determine which, if any, applicants will be awarded a scholarship. AFTRS' decision is final and no correspondence about decisions will be entered into. Successful applicants will be told of any conditions of a scholarship.

In 2023 the recipient of the equity scholarship cannot defer the commencement of the scholarship.

Who can apply?

This scholarship is open to both new and continuing students.

To be eligible to apply, you must:

- Complete an application for the MASB Full Time
- Be enrolled Full Time in the MAS; MASB; BASP or GDRP
- Be an Australian citizen or Australian permanent resident or a New Zealand citizen
- Be financially disadvantaged as described in this information sheet.

How to Apply

Application dates

Applications open 2 May, 2023 and close on 2 June, 2023.

- Master of Arts Screen Full Time
- Master of Arts Screen Business Full Time
- Bachelor of Arts Screen: Production Full Time
- Graduate Diploma in Radio and Podcasting Full Time

Demonstrating disadvantage

You must demonstrate financial disadvantage or other forms of disadvantage. Ways of doing this include:

- Provide information demonstrating exceptional, real and enduring financial hardship using the Financial Hardship Information fields and supporting documentation.
- You may have been in receipt of Centrelink payments previously which you can note in on the Financial Hardship form provided.
- You may demonstrate other educational disadvantage, such as one or more of the following:

Carer responsibilities; sole parent responsibilities; long-term medical condition/disability or ongoing effects of abuse; English language difficulty; You may be Australian Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander; a visa holder under Australia's humanitarian visa program; or you may have regional or remote disadvantage.
- You should provide documentation that attests to your disadvantage in the relevant area.

- Provide documentation such as bank statements and/or other financial documents that demonstrate your need or other educational disadvantage.

Certification of Documentation Provided

Any documents you provide as support material must be certified copies. AFTRS' certification requirements are available at:

aftrs.edu.au/students/future-students/how-to-apply/

Translation of Documents Provided

If supporting documents are not in English, applicants are required to supply certified copies of the following:

- The document in the original language
- An English translation of the document by an accredited translator.
- Do not send original supporting documents.

Subsequent applications

If you are unsuccessful in Round 2, 2023, you may reapply for any AFTRS' Equity Scholarships in the future. You would then need to meet all scholarship eligibility and disadvantage criteria at that time.

If you are successful you may also reapply for an AFTRS Equity Scholarship in subsequent rounds, so long as you meet the eligibility and disadvantage criteria at that time. A new application, with new supporting documents, would need to be submitted.
